

Is Faithful

Read 1 Corinthians 4:2

Faithfulness is not always convenient, as a matter of fact it looks more like this poem:

There is not enough money to make ends meet.

Give Anyway.

You need to save money to buy a car.

Give Anyway.

Credit card balances are higher than your income.

Give Anyway.

You are successful and 10% is a lot of money.

Give Anyway.

You give what you can, but not feeling cheerful.

Give Anyway.

Your job has been downsized and you are escorted to the door.

Give Anyway.

You think that you could pay off your debt faster.

Give Anyway.

You are not sure why God would need your money.

Give Anyway.

You are not sure how your money will be used.

Give Anyway.

For you see, in the end, it is between you and God Anyway..

The source of being faithful comes from “looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith” (Hebrews 12:2). Our faith increases as we experience, time after time, that God is our faithful Provider. Even if we cannot “see” how it will work out, we trust God that it will because it is not our money anyway.

Essential Question:

What does your stewardship look like?

Prayer Focus:

Lord, Thank you for your faithfulness and for making me in your image.

Reflective Notes

How is God speaking to me?
