

Recognition of God

Read Matthew 6

Three times in Matthew chapter 6 Jesus says “your Father who sees what is done in secret will reward you.”

Many people today may have a misguided view of this passage. Many people see the word reward and think of it in some monetary way, but these are rewards that are far greater than money. Our primary focus should be on the greatest gift ever given—eternal life. We need to share this reward with as many people as we can. A life spent in service to Christ is an awesome thing and at the end of our lives when we step across that line that divides life and death, we hear these words from Jesus Himself, “Well done thou good and faithful servant.” What a glorious day and what a great reward we will have in Him. Scripture also teaches us that we cannot give something as simple as a cup of water that He does not make note of it. God knows the details of your life and is aware of what you do and do not do with the blessings He has given.
