

Glorified Life That Honors God

Read Proverbs 3:5-10

A life that glorifies God is one that has learned to trust in Him and acknowledges Him as Lord over them and all that they have. This is a surrendered life. When we surrender to God in this way, He then directs us, to accomplish His will in and through our lives. Philippians 2:13 tells us, "For it is God Who works in you both to will and to work, for His good pleasure." Romans 12:1-2 tells us that we should present ourselves a living sacrifice to God and not conform to the pattern of this world. Our minds should be renewed, and when they are we will prove God's good, acceptable, and perfect will.

When God is free to work His will in and through us, He will be honored with our possessions and tithe (vs 9). Honoring God in this way is one way we "seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness" (Matt 6:33). It also tells us in verse 33 when we seek God first, all "these things" will be added to us. What things? Read verses 25-32 and you will see it refers to our needs. Do you trust God? Are you surrendered to God?
